THE EAST CANTON HIGH SCHOOL

*1973
Echo*

Foreword

The Annual Staff of 1973 presents to you the 1973 ECHO. We hope we have succeeded in capturing the 1972-73 school year, as you remember it, in pictures.

A lot of hard work went into this annual with many people deserving thanks. Among these are Troup and Pluto Studio for providing and processing our nearly one thousand pictures and supplying other pictures at short notice in order for us to meet a deadline. Thanks also go to our administration, faculty, and student body for their total cooperation. Last of all, I would like to thank the entire staff in the actual production of this Annual.

Our goal was to make this yearbook an unforgettable one. We hope we have obtained success.

FACULTY

A Big Mistake

The original teachers' pictures that we shot,
Were all duds; none of them turned out.
Then we tried it again after school was dismissed
But all we could get were in positions like this.

So we went to Mr. Troupe for a much needed assist
And he gave us these with just a slight twist of the wrist.

THE DEAD (Excerpt)
by Ernst Stockmann

And they no longer weep,
Here, where complaint is still!

Here, where all gladness flies!
And by the cypresses
Softly o'ershadowed,
Until the Angel
Calls them, they slumber!

"Wait 'til next week" were the prevalent words in the Hornet locker room following the heart-breaking Tuslaw loss. Standing 1-3 on the season, that's what most teams would say. And, unlike most teams, the Hornets quickly jelled to nab a 7-6 Homecoming win over Sandy, the first in 13 years. Unlike most teams, the Hornets were unbeaten in their last six games ... victories that included an 8-7 upset that snapped Lake's 27-game Senate string and a season ending 41-7 mauling of the Malvern Hornets. Senate Coach of the Year, Jack Yoder's Hornets finished second in the League play and ranked third in Region 9.

Now this is the way we're going to do it!!

Those were the good old days!!

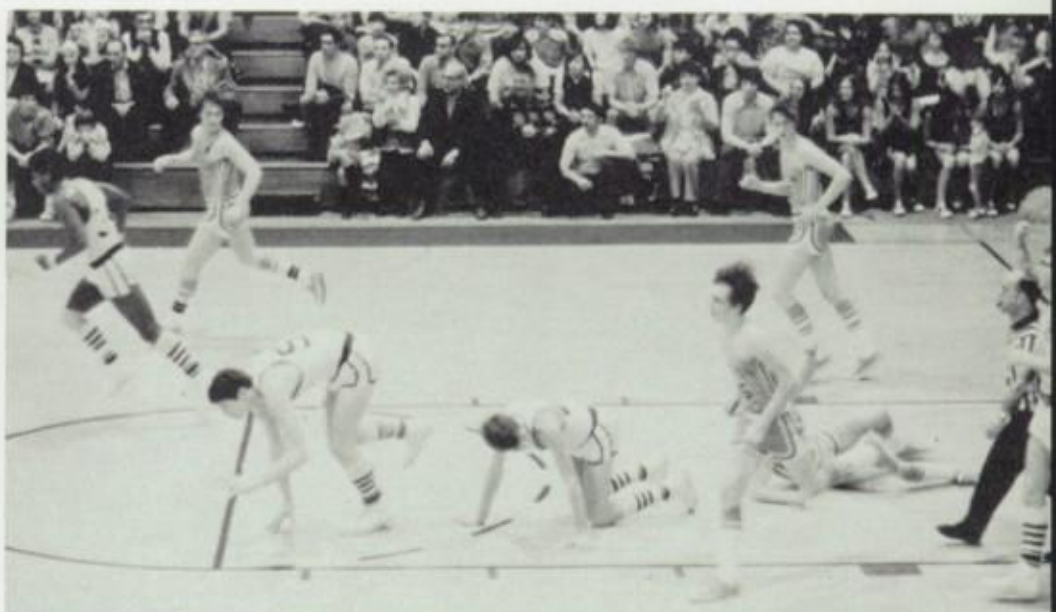

She DOES have the shortest skirt!

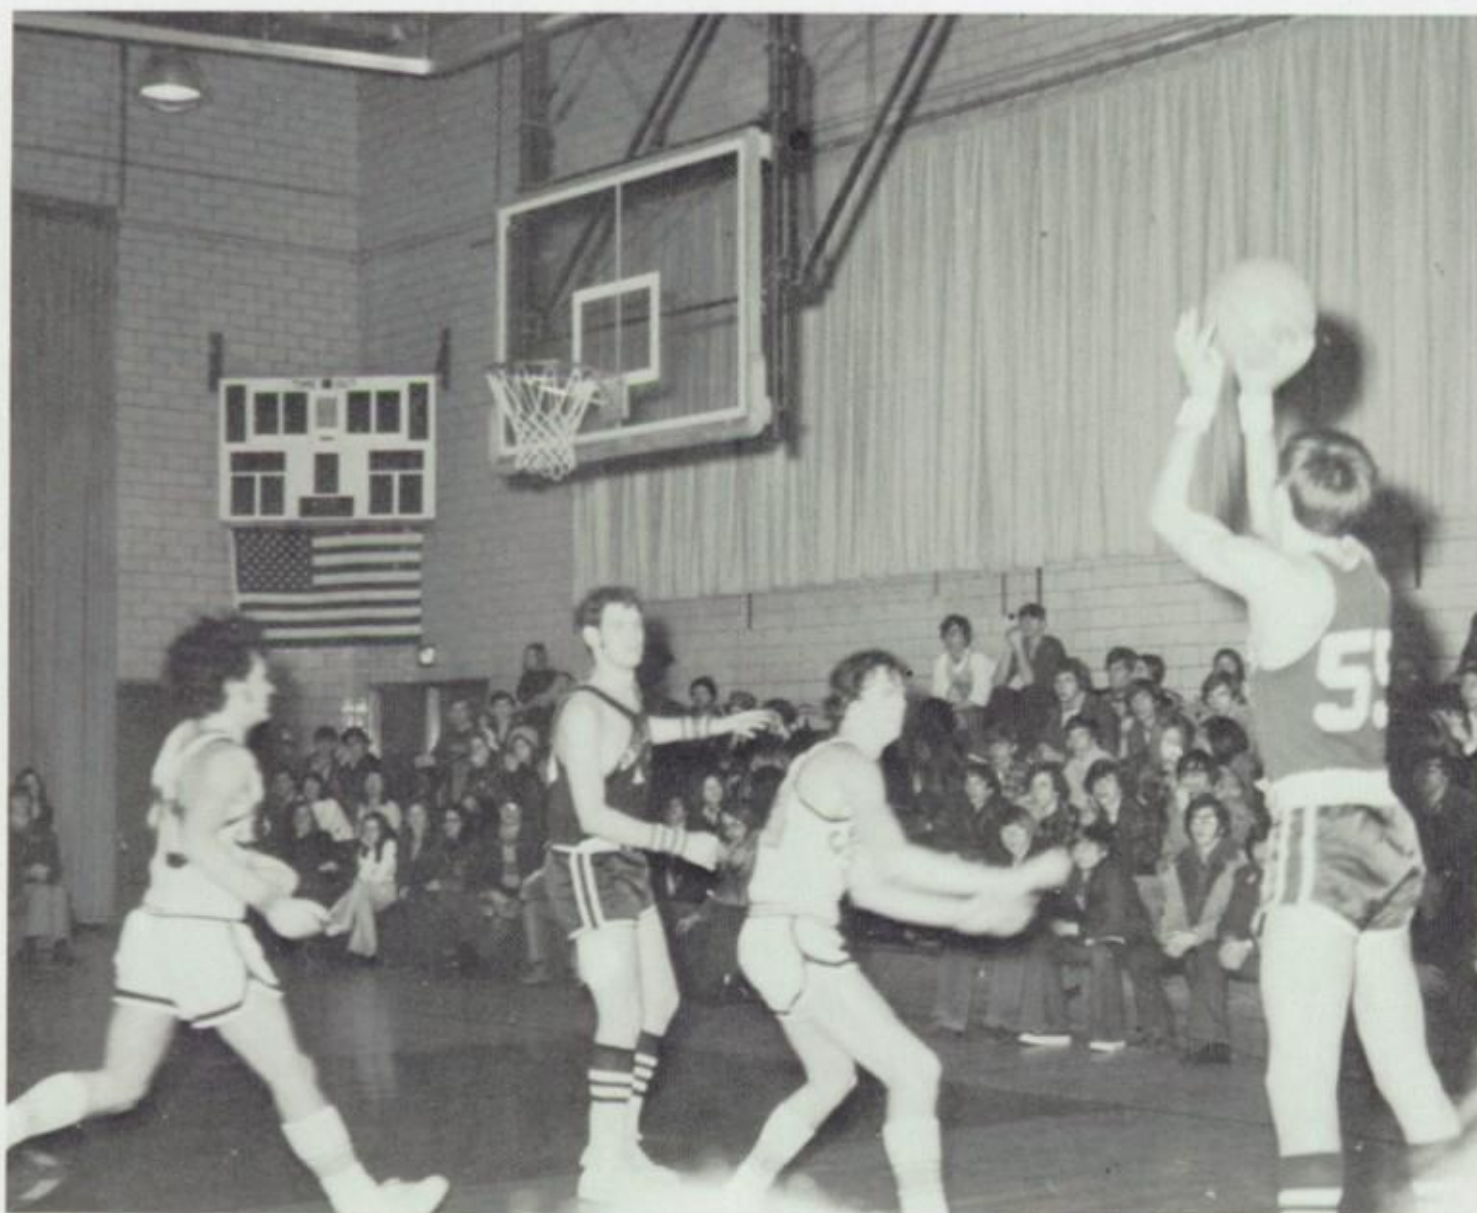

Thought you would out-jump me, didn't ya?!?!?

Up, up and away!

On your mark, get set, go!!

Don't touch it, it's a hot potato!

The Ho Hum boys.

It was here a minute ago!

Come on, you can do it!

"Hornets on Ballet"

But Shorty, it wasn't my fault; Honest!!

All you have to do is concentrate, then throw it!

"Carnival"

Once upon a time a musical was performed at the then, tiny school of E.C.H.S. Now, several years and several hundred students later a second musical raised its curtains and voices to the multitude. "Carnival" required a great amount of diligent work and patient cooperation from all concerned. For four months the cast, committees, and other involved people worked long, hard hours to give East Canton its second musical in history and "Carnival" proved to be a tremendous Success.

And Christmas Came

The Speech program was greatly enlarged this year. It became a member of the Ohio High School Speech League and an affiliate member of the National Forensic League. The speech curriculum was expanded to offer Speech II, a course in debating and competitive speaking.

On the Trail of Injun Joe

Speech II students handled the assemblies and the announcing at school and at sports events. They also put on these two plays, entitled "On the Trail of Injun Joe," and "And Christmas Came," for the grade school and the high school Christmas program, respectively.

Man is challenged today to excel in almost every endeavor . . . those who do succeed often trace the beginnings of their performance pattern to accomplishment in high school and to those who offered stimulation and inspiration in these formative years. Josten's has long been a partner to these educational leaders in providing a means of motivation and the rewards of recognition, and Josten's products have become tangible symbols honoring perseverance and achievement.

The class ring is representative of the fine traditions of school spirit and unity □ The yearbook provides a lasting memento of the year's accomplishments □ The diploma is a lifelong record of scholastic success □ The graduation announcement heralds this achievement □ Awards recognize academic and athletic leadership.
